TUESDAY: TAFSIR QUR'AN (URDU), WEDNESDAY (ENGLISH) - THUR: ZIKR & DURUD MAJLIS AFTER ISHA

Forgiving others is one of the most beautiful qualities taught by the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. The Seerah is filled with examples of his patience, mercy and willingness to forgive those who wronged him. He ﷺ endured insults, rejection, persecution and hardship, yet he did not allow hatred to overcome his heart. One of the greatest examples was the conquest of Makkah. After years of persecution, the Prophet ﷺ returned to Makkah with the strength to punish those who had harmed him and his companions. Yet he chose mercy instead of revenge and granted safety to those who had once opposed him. His forgiveness demonstrated the greatness of a heart that seeks the pleasure of Allah rather than personal satisfaction. The incident of Ta'if is another remarkable example. After being rejected and harmed, the Prophet ﷺ was offered the opportunity for the people to be destroyed. Instead, he refused and hoped that their descendants would worship Allah. The Seerah teaches us that forgiveness is not weakness. It is strength, patience and control over the ego. When we forgive others for the sake of Allah, we cleanse our hearts, strengthen our character and follow the noble example of the beloved Messenger ﷺ.
