Safar is the second of the twelve Hijri months. Before Islam, Safar was regarded as a month of bad luck and trouble among the people of Jahiliyyah. They believed that weddings that took place in Safar would end in divorce; any business, transactions done in Safar would turn out vain, anything started in this month would result in bad luck. Arabs assumed that there was a snake in their stomach called Safar which, when got hungry, bit them and made them suffer torture. There are also other narrations that the Arabs believed Safar to be an infectious stomach disease of people or animals; or it referred to the month of Safar and they believed to have misfortune in that month. Abu Hurayrah h metnions: Allah's Messenger g said, 'There is no 'Adwa no contagious disease is conveyed without Allah's permission, nor is there any bad omen (from birds), nor is there any Hamah, nor is there any bad omen in the month of Safar, and one should run away from the leper as one runs away from a lion " (Bukhari). Many muslims, with improper knowledge of Islam, have superstitions about this month being a month of misfortunes, Islam does not have any room for superstitious beliefs. We should work on our beliefs, understanding that everything is in the power of Allah ريدق عيش لك لى ع دللاو.
